Clan Baird Jubilee Celebration
in Scotland

These are exciting times for Clan Baird. The society is celebrating its 50th anniversary and we are doing it both in the USA and Scotland! We are still in the planning stages for this event, but we would love to see all of you at Grandfather Mountain (where the Society was formed in 1972), to kick off our celebrations, July 7-10, 2022, and then end the celebrations in Aboyne, Scotland, summer 2023. We are hoping for a very large Clan Baird turn out. If you have ever wanted to go to either Grandfather Festival and/or Scotland, we greatly encourage you to start planning your trips now.

Clan Baird Society Meeting with the Community of New Aberdour

By Debra Baird

On September 7th, our Commander, and many of our members in Scotland, met with the community of New Aberdour at the Parish Hall. Ross Baird, CBSW UK Commissioner, Robert Lamb Watson (Bob) and his wife Isobel, Gordon and Claire Harper, Corinne and Phil Cox, and Graeme Bruce led the set-up and discussion. Those of us in other countries attended by ZOOM, using the new extra-large TV screen that Commander Richard purchased for CBSW to use in these events.

The aim of the meeting was for us to learn more about what the community would be interested in us having in our Clan Baird Society Centre, when we are up and running.

Most of the group agreed that a heritage area would be very beneficial, local artisan displays, exhibits and sales, a coffee shop or small eatery of some sort, a hub for the Northeast Scotland Pilgrimage Trails, especially the one that is involved with St. Drostan's Auld Kirk, and perhaps the Old Deer Monastery, as well as meeting rooms, and if possible, some bed and breakfast rooms.

Corinne Cox gave a presentation of the history of the area and introduced the idea of archeological "test pits" in everyone's back gardens. She has already found many excellent pieces of pottery and other items in her back garden, which is adjacent to the Auld Kirk. As a result of her presentation of the possibilities, a community member has brought her a piece of a clay pipe with the maker's mark still legible, and they are looking into dating it.

We are currently looking for a property to develop and hope to have something very, very soon. If you have not already donated to Clan Baird Society Foundation for the Clan Baird Society Centre on the old Auchmedden Estate, please do so as soon as possible. The money will be earmarked for the purpose of buying a property, at this stage. If you would like to discuss having a meeting room named for your particular Baird family or a particular person in your family,

CLAN BAIRD PRESIDENT'S FORUM

Dear Members,

September and October have been busy with me being in the mountains of the Isle of Mull and Perthshire. Also spending time with family visiting from around the world, Kenya, South Africa and Ecuador! It was our first time meeting our granddaughter, Rose, due to COVID restrictions and now she is 11 months old!

Recently I have been raising the Clan's profile in North East Scotland, especially Stonehaven.

We have given a Challenge Cup for the Houff of Ury Hill Race, completed for each year in conjunction with the Stonehaven Highland Games and also getting the local community involved in looking after the Houff and hopefully doing work to show the place is loved, rather than slightly derelict, as it is at the moment. I will fill you in on how we get on over the winter.

I went to the Community meeting at New Aberdour to discuss our plans for St. Drostan's and will also be marking both Remembrance Sunday and Armistice Day, as we did last year.

I hope to get over to the USA next year and meet as many of you as possible at next year's Aboyne Games in Scotland, COVID permitting !!

Have a very Happy Christmas when it comes.

*Best regards
Richard*

Television drama project on the life of John Logie Baird

Free@Last TV sets up in Glasgow to work with Scottish talent

Dr. Malcolm Baird

Dr. Malcolm Baird, the son of John Logie Baird, recently told us about a drama project on the life of his father. The producing company is Free at Last, based in London, but with a new branch office in Glasgow. The link is as follows: <https://www.c21media.net/news/freelast-tv-sets-up-in-glasgow-to-work-with-scottish-talent-on-comedy-drama/>

Malcolm and his son Iain, who serves on several committees for the Society, and is very active with the development of the Clan Baird Society Centre on the old Auchmedden Estate, are advising on the project, which is at the development stage. The director and cast have yet to be chosen. The plan calls for three one-hour episodes by the Scottish screenwriter Marc Pye. We are hoping for world-wide distribution, helped by the approach of the 100th anniversaries of the first lab breakthrough on 2 Oct. 1925 and the first public demonstration of television on 26 January 1926. The story is based on my father's own memoirs, published as "Television and Me" by Birlinn Ltd., Edinburgh.

Malcolm Baird of the Logie Baird estate added: "There have been two earlier 'biopic' projects that aimed to tell my father's story but, in both cases, the family was not happy with the clearly fictional approaches. We are pleased that Marc Pye's script will be based on my father's own memoirs, which have dramatic quality and entertainment value."

Dr. Bill Rodgers, our South Carolina State Leader and a very active part of the Society, took part in his church Heritage Sunday for the Presbyterian Church. He carried the Clergy Tartan for minister's past, present, and future. Other Bairds carried the Baird Tartan. They had a very brief ceremony this year due to COVID-19 protocols, but they have over 90 tartans represented in 1st Presbyterian Church of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The photo was taken in their Chapel. They also use the "Scots Confession" of faith as part of their ceremony.

Baird Courage, Then and Now

Among our CBSW ranks is a young lady, JessaJo Rogers, aged five, who had an opportunity to demonstrate her Scottish pride during an honorary event. At the Crockett Elementary School in Texas, each month an important trait is highlighted for the students by way of an awareness program called, Character Counts at Crockett. One student from each class who demonstrated merits of that trait are selected and awarded. And this month, JessaJo displayed acts of COURAGE.

Her teachers wrote: "JessaJo shows courage by taking academic risks even when she feels hesitant to do so. JessaJo stands up for others who are being mistreated."

JessaJo's father, John Rogers, felt compelled to share with his young daughter the story of another act of courage, plucked from the mists of our Clan Baird history. JessaJo and John sport the surname Rogers today, but by lineage they are direct male-line Bairds that trace their ancestry back into the clan seat of Lanarkshire, Scotland. As our Clan Baird lore says, "once upon a time" an unnamed man stepped into the path of a charging boar and saved the life of King William the Lion. This single act of COURAGE gave rise to the great name of Baird and the birth of our clan.

Congratulations, JessaJo, for walking the path of resistance and overcoming your trials, big and small, in a courageous manner!

Pictured is JessaJo Rogers sporting her copy of "A Memoriall of Baird" written by our very own Debra Baird, Isaac Baird, and Branton Baird.

In Flanders Fields
BY JOHN MCCRAE

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

IN MEMORY OF HONOR AND DEDICATION

Vincent Blaine Baird
November 24, 1951 - September 7, 2021

Clan Baird Society past President Vincent Blaine Baird, 69, passed away on Tuesday, September 7th 2021, after an extensive fight with cancer. The son of the late Marvin Rex and Bengala “Bennie” Baird, he was born on November 24th, 1951. He is survived by his daughter and three sons: Cinnamon Geppelt, Isaac Baird, Korrey Baird, Jonathan Baird, as well as his 13 grandchildren whom he adored with his whole heart. He leaves behind two brothers and two sisters. He is also survived by multiple nieces and nephews that adored him.

Vincent Baird was a passionate Scouter, hunter, and basketball fan. Vincent’s motto in life could be summed up as “I did it my way”. His life included playing the bass guitar, theater, racing cars, coaching sports, safari hunting in Africa, genealogy, Scottish heritage, and fishing in any body of water. He worked as a mechanic, a security guard, a maintenance worker, and any other role to keep his children in shoes. He received multiple awards for his service to the Government. He was also the local garage mechanic willing to help family, neighbors and strangers he found on the side of the road.

Vincent adored Grantsville High School Basketball and served as the stats coach in the 1998 State Championship team. He held seasons tickets at the University of Utah Basketball team and followed BYU football avidly. He supported other sports and theater productions across the Wasatch front.

He donated his free time to the Boy Scouts and was recognized as a Silver Beaver for his many years of dedicated service both with his local unit and special needs troop. His list of young men that he aided in obtaining their Eagle Scout award was one of his greatest joys.

For the past 30 years, Vincent has been a leader in Clan Baird Society, he served in many roles, and as president at a time when the Society was struggling to survive. He and the other directors kept us afloat, and we will always be indebted to them. Vincent was named an honorary chieftain of the Society and elder of Clan Baird over the years and continued to advise and help the directors until his death. He will certainly be missed by his Baird Clan and the Society.

His grandchildren were his greatest pride and he will be missed by them most of all. He will always be their hearts and memories. For him family was paramount.

Carol P. Baird

Carol is the wife of Clan Baird Society past President, Jim Baird.

May 6, 2021 Carol P. Baird, 81, of Fayetteville, died peacefully at home with her family. She was born in Rochester and graduated from SUNY Cortland. She was an elementary school teacher and retired from Liverpool Central Schools. Carol was an avid tennis player, Mah-jongg player and book club member. She is survived by her husband of 60 years, James; children, Douglas (Sarah) Baird of New York City and Jeanne (Martin) McDermott of Syracuse; grandchildren, David Baird, Henry Baird and Roxanna Baird all of New York City; brothers, Ralph Pascale of Rochester and Robert Pascale of Florida; and many beloved nieces, nephews and friends. She was predeceased by her brother, Joseph Pascale.

Currently Seeking Y-111 DNA and at-DNA Samples For:

Among the many research projects currently underway, we're specifically seeking Y-111 DNA Samples from male line descendants of the John Baird and Margaret Rookings lineage, Joseph Baird and Hannah Lay, any and all NaeSmyths. In addition, there is a special emphasis on our Baird lines from Ireland, in connection with the William and Catherine Donaldson family, as William's mother was a Baird.

Aside from these specific families, we continue to seek DNA samples from all Baird and NaeSmyth descendants! Please direct all questions and concerns to the above email. Thank you!

The Importance of Sources

Sources are one of the most important aspects of genealogy. Not only can they substantiate facts and sort out details, but they bring a level of professionalism to your family tree. They show that you have not just copied details from a random place and passed it along as fact. It shows you have taken a moment to stop and think about the details you are adding into your tree.

Citing your sources allows other researchers to trace your work for themselves and use their own reasoning. So much in genealogy can be subject to interpretation. How can a family tree that records history be subject to interpretation? Easily - it's history! And, there's always two sides of a story.

Everything in genealogy should be researched. From our ancestors, the geographic locations, current events for the time and place an ancestor lived, even the sources themselves... What do I mean by this?

There are different types of sources and different types of information: primary and secondary sources, direct and indirect evidence, original or derivative. We must consider each source carefully. We must consider the merit of the authority which created the source. A family member present at the birth of a child will know the name and date of birth better than the mailman that delivers to the house everyday for ten years. We must seek to find each source in it's most original form, because like stories in family trees, information itself is subject to re-telling.

People seek to pass along bits of stories and information derived from sources, and many times we find they add new information to enhance the material. This is not a bad thing, this is a normal thing. As time passes, more information comes to light - especially with the internet at our fingertips. Yet still, as we beef up our stories with facts, our phrasing can sometimes alter the text the original sources supplied. And sometimes, the slightest, most innocent tweek in wording, can change the context of the story. Perhaps there is an event in your family history that was reported by multiple researchers in time. Try making a timeline of those sources and write out the versions of the event, who recorded it, and the year it was published. Then look at how the story changes over time, at each re-telling of the tale.

THE SOCIETY HAS BEEN VERY BUSY, DESPITE COVID

By Debra Baird

Clan Baird Society has been very busy with Scottish festivals this year. We had a tent at Niagara, New York, Wichita, Kansas, Tucson and Prescott, Arizona, Grandfather Mountain, North Carolina, Middle Tennessee Games in Nashville, Tennessee, and Stone Mountain, Georgia.

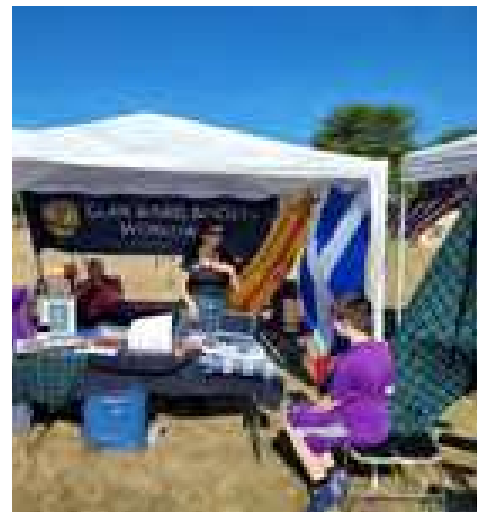

Heather Baird Klimeck Jensen and Peter Baird hosted the tent at the Buffalo/Niagara Highland Festival, New York, and they had a very good turn-out this year. Heather wrote about the festival, "This year was so fun... it was our first year at this festival! It was a 2-day event September 18-19th. On Saturday a lovely woman came to visit our tent who was a Baird and on Saturday a gentleman from Ontario, Canada came to visit our tent who was also a Baird! He was so excited to see a Clan Baird tent and took photos so he can show his family at home. He told as at his festivals there are over 250 Bairds, that would be so exciting to be a part of... maybe if COVID lightens up next year we will visit theirs. In 2022 My family, my cousin Peter Baird and a few friends will be attending this festival again and the festivals in Jamestown NY, and Cuba, NY."

Karen Baird, our Mid-West Commissioner, and Michael Trent Baird, with Karen's son, Nicholas Green, both State Leaders, held the Baird tent at the Great Plains Renaissance Festival and Highland Games, Wichita, Kansas.

CLAN BAIRD AROUND THE WORLD

Harold Roberts, our Arizona State Leader, has been very busy, hosting a Baird tent at both the Tucson and Prescott Games. Ricky and Crystal Midel, our Tennessee State Leaders, hosted our tent at the Middle Tennessee Games in Nashville.

Stone Mountain Festival was the 17th-20th of October, and Debra Baird, Convenor, Branton Baird, Dr Jeannie Baird, Convenor, Branton Baird, Dr Jeannie and Matt Beard, Ricky and Crystal Midel, Andy and Adriana Phillips, and Kim Lewis, Georgia State Leader worked the tent.

Branton Baird - Board Member, Doris Isaacs, Bill and Judy Rodgers - South Carolina Members, Andy and Adriana Phillips - North Carolina Leaders, and Dr. Jeannie and Matt Beard, set up and worked the four-day Grandfather Mountain festival for the Bairds. We will be a Distinguished Clan next summer and will host our Commander Richard Baird and his family at Grandfather, for ceremonies there.
